OFFICERS REPORTS

- 1) Volunteers - Amy Albus- put on your calendar for 8th grade band night April 20th from 4:30-7 its a meet the upperclassmen and hang out eat and hang out welcome them to the band. We will need 20 people for it and will upload in charms to sign up.
We will also need help with Registration Percussion and colorguard on May 5 May 6 wind.We need help with registration helping with the computer inputting info more info to come on that.
- 2) Fundraising - Tonya Crump - We were looking into doing the Mattress sale but they were booked up so we will be looking for another event to do. The other is the Witty up. But the kids have to do 2 videos. Also they only do credit cards. Looking for another big fundraiser to do before the end of the school year.

- 3) Hospitality - Cynthia Jarvis - 8TH grade band night is April 20th we will be feeding the kids pizza. The hotels have been booked for the Midland BOA. We are in the same hotels from last year in Midland boys in one hotel and girls in another We will provide the students for the leadership meeting snacks.. Band Banquet update. Still negotiation on food at the Atrium. Will send something for help for the senior table and senior gifts. We have photographers and will look into the 360 that the senior banquet had. Hoping to have a cost on the banquet soon, still working on the food details since we have to use the venue catering list.
- 4) Communications - Myra Martinez - Nothing to report.
- 5) Color Guard - Deanna Donaho - Winter Guard has come to an end. JV ended the season taking 2nd place in Lewisville and Varsity ended in Mansfield taking 3rd place. Great job to all. First time both teams medaled, and special thanks to Kara for snacks and Matt and Allen for being part of the Road crew.
- 6) Merchandise - Teresa Cudiff - We did an inventory and we have lots of spirit wear to sell and will be selling at the upcoming events like the 8th grade band night and for registration day.
- 7) Bobby Story did a quick overview of the new budget for next year. And handouts were available to have.
Trailers to be rewrapped to match the new semi we will have which should be ready for the next marching season.
